TIME LIMIT

Each speech shall be a minimum of six (6) minutes in length and a maximum of eight (8) minutes. Each contestant will be allowed five (5) additional minutes in which judges will ask questions relating to their presentation. Deductions of 1 point per second will be made from the score of each judge for speeches under six minutes or over eight minutes.

METHOD OF SELECTING WINNER

1. The Board of Directors of the MoFairs will be in charge of the contest.
2. Prior to the contest each judge will be provided a copy of each manuscript which they will read and score on content and composition on the score sheet provided.
3. Contestants will draw for position. The contest chairman will introduce each contestant by name and number. Applause shall be withheld until all contestants have spoken.
4. One time keeper will be assigned to record time used by each contestant noting underage or overage for which deductions should be made.

6. Judges shall formulate and ask questions that pertain directly to each contestants subject. Judges will score each contestant based in their ability to answer all questions ask by all judges. The full five minutes will be used.
7. Contestants will be ranked in numerical order based on final score as determined by the judges. Finalists will be selected whose scores ranked highest by each judge. Additional winners are selected using same basis (highest total points on scorecard method). Judges will then rank contestants as 1, 2, 3 with lowest total declared winner. In the case of a tie winner will be the contestant whose grand total score shall have been the highest among the finalist.

8. If the number of contestants require more than one group of speakers to be judged the winners from each group will then be judged in a final run off contest.
9. When contestants have finished speaking each judge will total their score on composition and delivery. The time keepers record will be used in completing the final score.
10. Final score sheets, with the winners ranked, will be delivered to the MoFairs contest chairman for verification. The MoFairs contest chairman will announce the winners at the conclusion of the contest.
